

No need for cookies, we have your phone number!

Fri Aug 14, 2015 – CCC15

Maybe you now the story about Verizon (US) injecting Perma-Cookies?

- ▶ Electronic Frontier Foundation has made a lot research and actions to raise the public awareness and stop it!
- ▶ But in EU and Italy fighting for digital rights is not so established. . .

Italy, and what about your country?

- ▶ We have the same problem in Italy, maybe even worse. . .
- ▶ We do not know about other countries, but please tell us

The story is about your mobile number

- ▶ If you use an Italian Mobile Operator for your Internet connection, then every web site can get your phone number
- ▶ There is no transparent information, to the point that:
- ▶ At the moment we do not know if is possible to opt-out

Do you see any problem with it?

- ▶ European directive on data protection?
- ▶ Net neutrality?
- ▶ Privacy?
- ▶ ...

We will have a session on this

- ▶ When: Tomorrow at 11:00 AM
- ▶ Where: La Quadrature du Camp (Subvillage: Tactical Tech, CIJ, Courage)
- ▶ Session Name: (No) Privacy in Mobile Networks in Italy

Join us

- ▶ Join us to discuss about raising the awareness and countermeasures!
- ▶ This problem may be already affecting your country!
